

Stanley J. Grogan

daily diary

16 July 1963

JOHN A. MC CONE (DCI) -- AWD CRAFT OF INTELLIGENCE CLEARANCE

Mr. McCone informed Colonel Grogan: "I haven't gotten into this Dulles book, but I want to handle this on a very minimum amount of interference. I don't want to ... if there is a question of security or violation of security, I don't want to do that and neither does he, but if there is a question of taste, he should be the judge of that, so let's ...

"You see, I offered him every facility and even offered to pay for the book, but he elected to do it himself. I haven't seen the marked up copy that was sent over here, but let's put him into a special catagory; he isn't an ordinary employee."

SGJ said to Mr. McCone: "I know that; your decision will be mine."